

THE WIDOW AND THE JUDGE

Jesus told a story to teach about prayer.

There was a widow who needed help from a judge.

The judge was not a nice man. He didn't care about God or the woman.

Activate
Go to Set

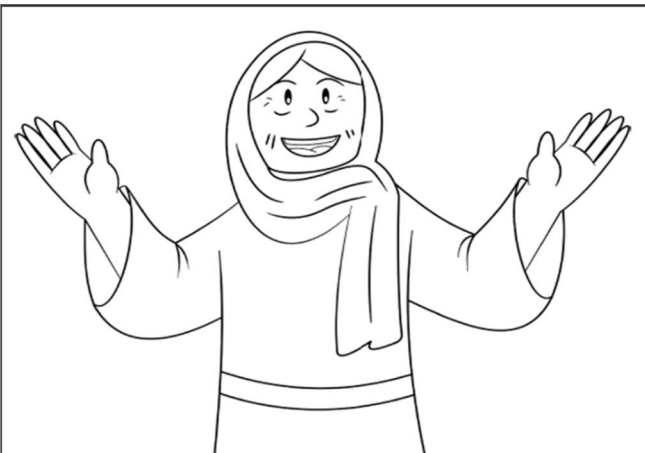

He told the widow to go away and leave him alone.

But the widow never gave up.

Day after day, she begged the judge to help her.

Day after day, the judge said "no."

Activate
Go to Set

Finally, the judge had enough of the woman.

He thought, I will help her so that she stops bothering me.

The woman was happy that finally, the judge did what was right.

Activate
Go to Set

Jesus said that judge was bad, but eventually did what was right.

But God is good.

He told his followers to keep praying and never give up.

God hears and answers prayer.

Activate
Go to Set

I. Tick \checkmark or X:

1. Jesus taught his disciples in parables.

2. Jesus told his followers to pray seven times and then give up.

3. The judge feared God.

4. The widow asked for justice.

5. The judge didn't want to help her.

6. The widow was sad and gave up asking.

7. Eventually, the unjust judge helped the widow.

8. Unlike the judge, Jesus will always do what is right

II. Fill in the blanks:

1. The judge was a _____ (kind/unkind) man.

2. The widow _____ (begged/ordered) the judge to help her.

3. The judge decided to help her because he wanted the widow to stop

_____ (hating/bothering) him.

4. Jesus said, God is _____ (good/bad) and he will always do the _____ (wrong/right) thing.

5. He told his followers to keep _____ (dancing/praying) and never give up.

- Print and cut the picture on the dotted lines. Send the strips with your child as the puzzle will be done in class. (Please send a glue stick and do not stick it in the book)

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

1 2 3 4 5 6 7