|-----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Q1:                         | Does God take care of created things?                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Ans:                        | Yes, God takes care of created things and exercises providence over them; He preserves them in existence and directs all of them toward their own proper purposes with infinite wisdom, goodness and justice. |
| Q2:                         | Can God do all things?                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Ans:                        | God can do all the He wills to do: He is the all-powerful one.                                                                                                                                                |
| Q3:                         | What does "Creator" mean?                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Ans:                        | "Creator" means that God made all things out of nothing.                                                                                                                                                      |
| Q4:                         | What does "Lord" mean?                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Ans:                        | "Lord" means that God is the absolute master of all things.                                                                                                                                                   |
