SAMUEL 1 – CHAPTER 8 (NOTES)

1. Who did Samuel appoint as judges after he grew old?
   Samuel made his sons Joel and Abijah as judges.

2. Where did the elders of Israel gather to confront Samuel about his sons and ask for a kind?
   The elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.

3. How did God try to console Samuel about the elder's request for a king?
   God consoled Samuel by saying that the people had not rejected him, but they had rejected God from being king over them.

4. What did Samuel's sons do wrong?
   Joel and Abijah did not follow their father's ways instead they turned aside after gains, took bribes and perverted justice.

5. What did God tell Samuel to tell the Israelites in response to the elders request for a king?

   The Lord asked Samuel to let the people of Israel know what a king who will reign over them will do.